

Dialogue: [episode 2]

May: Nana, this is Cooper, my brother.

Nana: Hi, happy to meet you.

Cooper: I'm happy to meet you, too.

May: These are the photos Cooper took in the photo contest. They're a gift for you.

They're the best ones.

Nana: Wow, thanks so much! They're awesome!

Cooper: It's because you're great at expressing feelings with your eyes.

Nana: Ha, ha!. Seriously, I still have a lot to learn

Cooper: I noticed that you're good at working with the camera.

Nana: Well, I try to catch the rhythm.

May: Rhythm? You mean like the rhythm of music?

Nana: No, I mean the rhythm of when we interact with each other. You know, because my Chinese is not that great, I have to depend a lot on body language to understand and communicate with people.

May: Wow, smart!

Cooper: Even more than smart. This is wisdom.
